Twenty - eight Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 13, 2019

We will be like the Lord, when he appears!

Twenty -eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 13, 2019

“The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.”

Naaman, a foreigner, returns to Elisha and promises to worship God exclusively after he is cured of his leprosy. Another foreigner, a Samaritan, is the only one of ten lepers who return to thank Jesus after being cured. Physically and socially, their lives have been completely transformed and their immediate response is to return and give thanks. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how God has blessed us, so we can sincerely respond, "Thanks be to God."

Today in Focus

God loves us here and now

A few years ago, my aunt dies. My cousin was very upset when he was told the news of her death was online even before he had the opportunity to call people with the sad news. On social media, I often see condolences, birthday wishes and congratulations. Many of us are separated from loved ones by long distances, but I think most of us appreciate the personal care and attention of a phone call more a note via "snail mail."

In today's readings, Naaman the Syrian and the ten lepers received God's personal attention. Naaman was so grateful that he was willing to offer a great gift in return for God's care. The leper shared the same attitude of thanksgiving as Naaman. Both were outsiders, not Jews; little was expected of them, but both did not take their gift for granted.

Do I realize that God cares for me, not on some computer screen via an impersonal program, but right here, right now? Do I stop to give thanks for God's personal attention in my life? Today, at Eucharist, itself a prayer of thanksgiving and praise, we have the perfect opportunity to say, "Thank you." As we go forth from this celebration, we can continue to express gratitude to God who loves us deeply and personally.

UPDATES

At the end of July, we had a fundraiser for the sound system in the church. Currently, we are still short of the amount needed. Any support that you can give would be greatly appreciated.

RCIA

RCIA will be starting soon. Anyone who is non-Catholic, who is interested in becoming Catholic, who has been Baptized and needs to complete the sacraments or just coming to learn more about the Faith please contact Fr. Joe at 216.781.5530 ex12.

Weekly Collection

The weekly collection was $2,875.88. We are deeply grateful for your generosity for the weekly collection to St. Augustine Parish, as well as your kindness and support that enable us to provide for the needs of our families and our parish community.
